Dedication

Catholic Central is a combination of many people, many jobs fused into one smooth-running whale. The faculty, the student body, the maintenance and the culinary department, each contributes an indispensable share in the making of Catholic Central. To all those who in reality are Catholic Central, we dedicate our 1955 SPIRES.

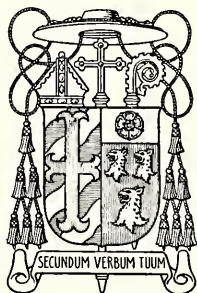

The Most Reverend Allen J. Babcock smiles broadly on his new subjects as the procession moves toward the Cathedral on the day of installation.

Formal installation of the Most Reverend Allen J. Babcock as the seventh bishop of the diocese of Grand Rapids took place in St. Andrew's Cathedral May 20, 1954; His Eminence, Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, officiating. Catholic Central students, eighteen hundred strong, welcomed His Excellency, and presented him with a spiritual bouquet when he arrived at the Cathedral May 19.

Bishop A. J. Babcock addresses the congregation using this text: "You are to be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and throughout Judea, in Samaria, yes and to the ends of the earth." Acts of the Apostles 1-3.

His Excellency, The Most Reverend Allen J. Babcock
Bishop of Grand Rapids

Reverend Joseph Murphy,
Principal of West Catholic.
Reverend John McDuffee,
Instructor in Religion,
West Catholic.

Reverend James Yager,
Assistant Principal.
Instructor in Religion.

Reverend John Najdowski,
Instructor in Religion.

The Right Reverend Monsignor William J. Murphy, Principal.

TREASURERS OF THE KEYS

The Right Reverend Monsignor Murphy holds the master key to the realm of knowledge and culture at Catholic Central. Keys to specific kingdoms — arts, science, language, etc., — he allots to faculty members, who have graciously opened the doors of their departments and dispensed freely to us of its treasures, sufficient to enable us to become good citizens and good Christians. We are greatly indebted to the faculty for so generously sharing their treasures with us and take this occasion to say "Thanks — God bless them!"

Best of luck to a sweet girl who saves the best.
Good luck.

— A key to a Christian Career

At Catholic Central we acquire two kinds of knowledge — the necessary facts and skills to earn a living, and the spiritual qualities that will enable us to use them best for our own happiness and the glory of God. We have the opportunity to become proficient in mathematics, the sciences, languages, and business skills. But our education is not only to accumulate knowledge, but also to apply it. Our intellect is sharpened, our character strengthened, and we begin to find ourselves and our own particular key to a successful career solidly based on Christian ethics.

Best of luck to a good kid. Have fun this summer.
Margaret.

In Memoriam

CAROLYN ORLOSKI

Carolyn Orloski, a Sophomore from West Catholic Central, died Saturday, November 20, 1954 of leukemia after an illness of only four months. Kind, cheerful, industrious Carolyn, Sodalist and true child of Mary, was faithful to her First Saturday Holy Mass with Holy Communion. May she rest in peace.

ACTIVITIES

— A key to Christian Society

One of the best ways to get along with people is through practice. As students we work side by side with many types of people in various activities — clubs, dances, school projects. Our experience in meeting social problems and sharing responsibility creates a new awareness of the people and issues existing around us, and thus helps build good citizens. We develop socially and learn the qualities of unselfishness, tact, and tolerance. We learn to make God a part of our daily life. The experience and character traits gained in high school are a key to our place in Christian society.

Top right: The Krwt'ers—Don't be bitter
. . . vote Krwt'er! Rosemary Kowalczyk,
John Wilks, Geraldine Rodowski, Bill
Thrall.

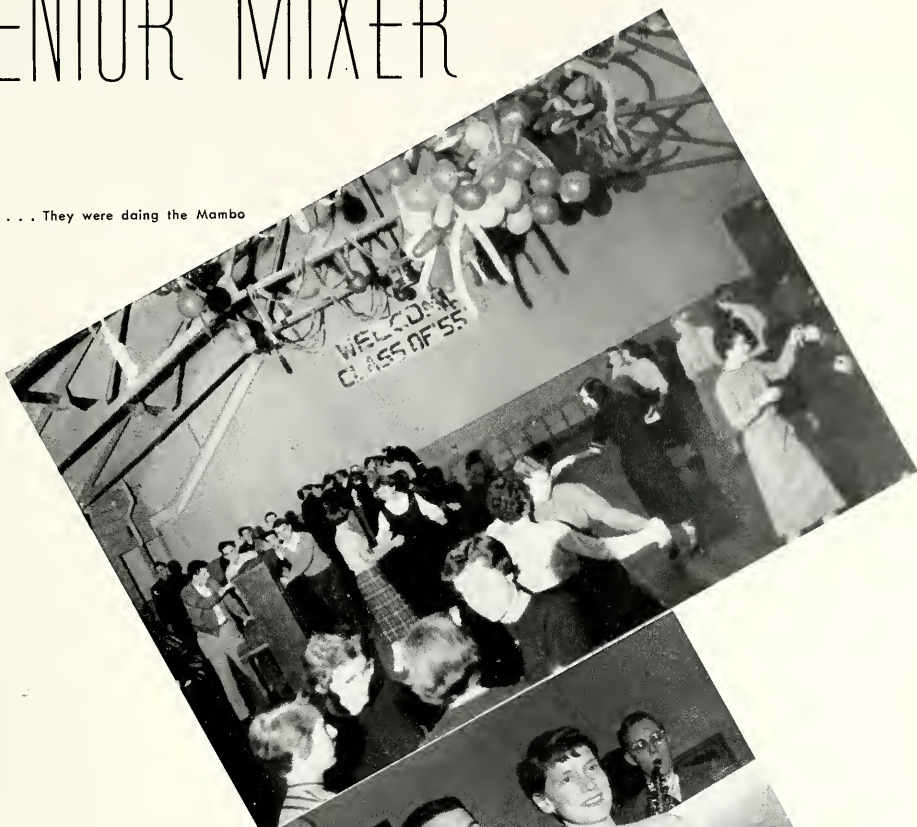

The fun filled Senior Elections began October 8, when the candidates were nominated. Things got into full swing, political parties were chosen, platforms written up and speeches prepared. Candidates were Paul Morrissey, Rosemary Cole, Pat Miller, and Bruce Craig. The opposing party, the Krwt'ers was led by Bill Thrall, Rosemary Kowalczyk, Geraldine Radowski, and John Wilks.

October 11, gaily decorated cars, filled with campaigning seniors, paraded up and down Sheldon Avenue. After the last burst of campaigning the winners were chosen, Bill Thrall, Rosemary Cole, Rosemary Kowalczyk, and John Wilks.

Filled with the holiday spirit new friends and old mingled and danced to the rhythmical strains of a mystery band.

The brilliant orange, yellow and brown crepe streamers furnished a highly decorative atmosphere to this November evening.

Entertainment to rival the brilliance of the evening was provided by the comedy act of Berles' and Russell, the singing of Joan Van Male, Kathy Wolf and Pat Weber, and the lively dancing of Pat Reynolds.

Our co-chairmen, Sally Feutz and George Pulaski, deserves a well earned hand for this success.

HOMECOMING

On the cold brisk night of Nov. 5 after a victorious game at Houseman Field, students and alumni gathered in the Black and Silver Room.

The Co-chairmen Geraldine Radowski and Paul Morrissey had planned on evening of sparkling entertainment and dancing to the soft music of Tany Horvath.

Intermission ceremonies were marked by the coronation of Rita Myszka and Paul Willacker as Homecoming Queen and King.

A song by Katy Daud, a dance by Pat Parrette and Lily Larkin with Thrall's and John McGavin's version of Romeo and Juliet all helped to make this a Homecoming to remember.

BLUE AND WHITE CAPERS

Besides putting out the Catholic Central paper the Blue and White staff presented the last social event of January, the annual Blue and White Capers.

Decked in appropriate blue and white streamers and past editions of the school paper the C.C. gym provided the scene for a gay and entertaining evening. The object of everyone's thanks at the close of the evening were the co-chairmen, Rosalie Kennedy and Dan Kampfschulte.

Hm-m-m-m?

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Senior Christmas party was held December 19 in the school cafeteria. An annual event, it proved to be one of the merriest and most spirited. The commendable entertainment included a Marine hymn sung to Father Yager, and was highlighted by an inspiring Nativity scene.

The seniors received a double treat; one from Ed (Santa) Pickard who distributed gifts, and one from Father John who served cake on his birthday. The night concluded with a weary but satisfied senior class returning home after an enjoyable evening.

Sincere thanks to the co-chairmen of our Christmas Party, Dave Tietema and Annette Pehr.

RETREAT

Nine o'clock in the morning of January 24 Saint Andrew's Cathedral was filled with serious minded Catholic Central students eager to remodel their spiritual selves.

The three day retreat consisted of prayer, meditation, and conferences by Father McQuillen retreat master; and was climaxed by confession and Holy Communion. By January 28, nineteen hundred students had gained a realization of the infinite value of the Catholic Faith, and left, resolving to lead holier, more Catholic lives.

led by Co-Chairmen Fredine Pfeiffer and Robert Campbell, committee members planned the '55 Sno-Shuffle. The afternoon of February 12th found the Black and Silver Room echoing with Seniors cutting, pasting, and hammering to the accompaniment of a piano, horns, and drums, as the entertainment rehearsed.

At nine o'clock amid red hearts and white lace the floor filled with couples dancing to the music of Johnny Smith. Entertainment included "Melody of Love" by Joan White, "Mobile" by Robert Campbell, a skit by Pat Miller, Robert Gaudet, John Byington, and a number by Paul Morrissey, Don Firlik, Larry McFarland, and Ton Winstrom on the clarinet, drums, piano, and trumpet. It was followed by the crowning of Spires Royalty Kathy Howe and "Big Bud" Crampton. When the music ended the '55 Sno-Shuffle was a Valentine dance to remember.

GALA-NITE

Night of prizes, night of laughter, night of friendship, night of empty packets and jingling cigar boxes; so goes the tale. Financially, it was the biggest bazaar ever held at Catholic Central. Socially, it was one of the friendliest.

The popularity contest came back this year. The favorites of the students, Mary Kowalski and George Pulaski, were presented at the festival.

Co-Chairman Jahn Neuhaus and Katy Doud really put this Gala-Nite over with a bang!

Popular George and Mary. Congratulations from chairman John.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

J - H O P

The J-Hop of '54 testified to the fine potential abilities of the future seniors. Co-chairmen Jackie Rieth and John Neuhaus supervised the committees in planning the theme, "Springtime". Trellises arrayed with spring flowers created the picturesque seasonal setting into which M. C. Mike Velez genially introduced the sparkling entertainment of song, dance, and comedy. The mellow tones of the Rhythmaires provided a pleasant atmosphere for the merry whirling couples.

Truly, this was a fine start for the Class of '55.

Our Chapel

Many found it refreshing to slip into the chapel to spend a few moments with their God. There, troubled minds were eased, spirits lifted, and students obtained a brief respite from the busy world in the quiet interior of the chapel. Confession was available and Mass was celebrated weekly.

Peace—in His Blessed Presence.

President Bill Thrall addresses the President's Club.

President's Club

This new club consists of senior class officers, officers of the Student Council, editors of the Spires, and Blue and White staffs, and presidents of other clubs. It is supervised by Mr. Geary, Sr. Damien, and Sr. Joannes. This group nominates committee chairmen for the senior social events and acts as an intermediate between the faculty and the student body. Their main project this year was a grotto built in honor of Our Lady.

Writer's Club

With Fr. Joseph Murphy directing, and R. Russell, President; G. Radowski, Vice-President; P. Molter, Secretary; and R. Crampton, Treasurer; presiding, the writer's club produced articles concerning activities and events at C.C. which appeared in the Youth Parade. The most important task for the hard working group was devising the theme and writing the script for Class Nite.

Writer's Club meets in 401.

Writer's Club Officers: R. Crampton, P. Molter, R. Russell, G. Radowski.

Students who participated in the Marian Year pilgrimage.

Marian Club

The Marian Club consists of students who by frequent attendance at Mass, reception of the sacraments, and the daily rosary, strive to increase devotion to Mary.

It was organized under the supervision of Sister Edwin and the leadership of John Byington, Susan Hake, Shirley Bartz, and Robert Gaudet. Because of the large membership, the club was divided into four groups.

During the school year the Marian Club carried on such activities as a Marian Year pilgrimage, the annual tea, and the May Crowning.

Mission Club

Prayer, study, and sacrifice: These are the mediums through which the West Catholic Central Mission Club works. According to their director, Sr. M. Vincentta, S.S.N.D., they are helping in some small way to bring non-Catholics into the Church.

Handmaids of Mary

The Handmaids of Mary make rosaries and badges for the New Mexican missions. Approximately one thousand rosaries, scapulars and badges have been distributed this year.

Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament

The Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament, supervised by Sr. M. Evangeline, O.P., keep the sacristy and chapel neat, lay out the priest's vestments, and prepare the altar for Holy Mass.

Caritots Club

Giving needed affection, entertainment, and helping the homeless children at St. John's is the main purpose of this Club.

Listed among the varied activities undertaken by the club was a Christmas Party for the children of the home and a successful clothing drive for the benefit of needy children in New Mexico. Many more works of Catholic Action are being carried on through the Caritots Club along with their branch, the Leaders.

Sr. Joannes, adviser, together with the officers; Bruce Craig, Kottie Doud, Betty Breuer, and John Neuhaus, have worked hard to make every project successful.

Officers of the Caritots: J. Neuhaus, Treasurer, E. Breuer, Secretary, B. Craig, President, and K. Doud, Vice-President.

Ushers Club

Proving able escorts for the student body at various assemblies was the duty of the Ushers Club. The members carried out this assignment with utmost efficiency, enabling students to be seated properly and smoothly. The club was under the direction of Charles Tomajczyk, President; and Paul Morrissey, Vice-President; and supervised by Sister M. Damien, O. P.

Library Club

With President Margaret DeVries and Vice-President Charlene Nash leading, the Library Club proved invaluable in helping our librarians, Sister Rose Carlita and Sister Rose Imelde. Their purpose was to foster appreciation and interest in literature and to enrich their own lives and the lives of the library users, to which end they were very successful.

The Student Council

The Student Council is organized each year for the benefit of the student body. To maintain and develop cooperation and order throughout the school is their chief aim. Their duties consist of conducting classes when the teacher is not present and keeping order in the corridors. The monthly meetings demonstrate one of the outstanding qualities of the group, their moral leadership. Guiding the student body are: President, Frank Huizenga; Vice-President, Elizabeth Larkin; Agnes Keller; Secretary, Rita Myszka; Treasurer, David Mohan.

C C Players

A new club, the C.C. Players, joined the ranks of the organizations at Catholic Central in 1955. Begun in February, it presented a timely Lenten dramatization, "The Crown of Thorns."

Credited with guiding the club is Sister M. Adorine, assisted by the following officers: President, John McGavin; Vice-President, Pat Miller; Secretary, Kay Rohloff; and Treasurer, John Neuhaus.

Music Graduate

Mary Werk gave a Piono Graduation Recital May 8, at the St. Cecilia Music Studios, Ransom, N. E. Rt. Reverend Msgr. Wm. J.
Murphy conferred the honor. Mary played a ten-piece memorized program, including a Bach Prelude and Fugue; three movements of a Beethoven Sonata and pieces from the Romantic and Modern Periods of Music.

Mary was the first Diploma Candidate in Grand Rapids to enter the National Guild's
Piano Playing Auditions.

Senior Glee Club

The Glee Club, Senior Group, under the direction of Sr. Anna Marie O.P., made its first appearance at the Senior Christmas Party. Since then the Club has entertained at the Marian Tea, presented a Spring Concert, and sung for the Senior Class Play, The Crown of Thorns.

On April 18th the chorus chose selections from their repertoire to entertain the Parent Teacher's Association at an all-city meeting in St. James Auditorium.

The Glee Club makes its final appearance at the Graduation Exercises in the chorus — "Now Thank We All Our God", and in the ancient Benediction hymns of St. Thomas Aquinas.

STRIKE UP

THE BAND!

The Catholic Central band, under the direction of Mr. Herman Johnson, began its season early in the school year. Besides giving their musical support at the football and basketball games, their schedule included playing in several city parades and in presenting the final big event, the Spring Concert. Mention must also be made of the artistic skill in leadership shown by our drum major, Paul Morrissey, and our majorettes, Charlene Ohren, Patricia Henry, and Nancy Folkersma. To all the members of the band the student body of Catholic Central wishes to express many hearty thanks and say: "A job well done."

Modern dancers

Instructor Mrs.
Jean LoBelle.

Modern Dances

Those girls who wish to develop grace and poise have formed a group known as the Modern Dance Club. With the assistance of Mrs. LoBelle they study how to develop the simple fundamentals into a modern graceful form of dance.

Physical Education

Laughter and enthusiastic cheers echo through the gym whenever the girls gym classes are in session. Freshmen, Sophomores, and Junior girls participate in various sports and calisthenics under the direction of Mrs. LaBelle. The most popular of their activities however are the dances which include everything from the Mambo to folk dances.

French Club

Devotion to Our Lady, and maintaining a speaking knowledge of the language are the two purposes of the French Club, under the direction of Sr. Mary Bernadette. The club is dedicated to Our Lady of Notre Dame.

During the course of the meetings, the life, customs, traditions, and social activities of the French people are discussed. All conversation and recitation is done entirely in French. Officers of the club are: President, Wayne Lenartz; Vice-President, Paul Zamberg; Chairman, Diana Askins; and Co-Chairman, Margaret Leonard.

Latin Club

Our Latin scholars assemble once a month for discussion of such topics as Roman life, uses of Latin, and other relevant subjects. Class meetings are held and officers from the fourteen classes meet once a semester. Each class has its own discussion period. The Latin Club observes Latin Week with a Roman Banquet.

This club is under the direction of Sr. M. Michael O.P. The principal officers are Jahn Fennell, Elizabeth Kunst, James Hickey, and Michael Milanowski.

Radio Club

A brand new club at C.C. is the Radio Club. Its purpose is to give service anywhere needed and to teach radio theory. Their '55 project was a demonstration of ham radio to the physics classes. Theory school was held every Monday and Wednesday, and business meetings every Friday.

Club officers are: President, Bert Walsh; Secretary-Treasurer, William Theeringer; and Sr. M. Aquilina O.P., faculty advisor.

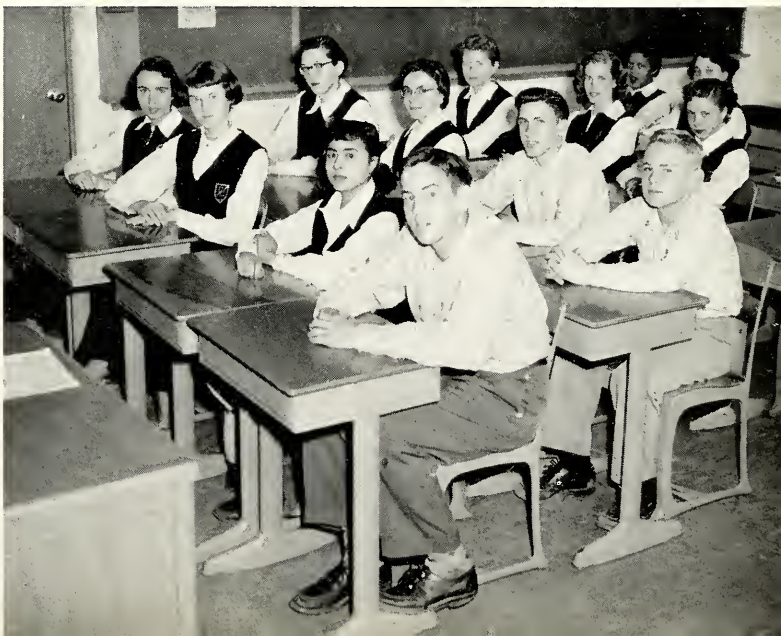

Standing: R. Martin, B. Walsh, T. Martin, R. Spielmaker, G. Roberts.
Seated: P. Tetreau, E. Zabor, W. Theeringer.

Row 3: M. Weny, P. Centilli. Row 4: J. Borham, S. Steffens.

Spanish Club

This organization is composed of those students of the Spanish classes who are particularly interested in Spanish life and culture. Under the direction of Sr. Agnes Therese O.P. they presented skits in Spanish and have learned several Spanish songs.

The officers are: Patricia Pavlak, President; Maria Vargas, Vice-President; Ellen Peterson, Secretary; and John Maxim, Treasurer.

Left to right: V. Corsiglia, S. Hake, J. Reith, R. Cole.
Kneeling: R. Signor.

Cheerleaders

The presence of this spirited group at all the football games and the pep rallies insured hearty cheers and encouraging shouts for Catholic Central. No one can estimate their value in keeping up team spirit and drive. Much of our athletic success can be attributed to these staunch supporters and hard workers. All of C. C. owes them a vote of gratitude and a rousing three cheers.

Varsity Club

The advancement of good sportsmanship and increasing interest in athletics is the object of this club. No one may belong unless he is a major letter-winner and has been accepted by the other members. Under the leadership of President John Neuhaus, Vice-

President Paul Willacker, Treasurer Donald Wittkowski, and Secretary Thomas Hanna, the boys make certain that school sports are kept clean and exhilarating and that Catholic Central stays on top in Michigan athletics.

Blue and White

It is always a big day in the life of a C.C. student when on issue of the Blue and White is ready for circulation. Students derive a great deal of pleasure from scanning these issues and referring to them later on. But these enjoyable moments spent reading are short and fleeting compared with the long hours put into the making of each issue by Editor Mary Kowalski, her staff, and director Mr. Geary. Its timely articles inform students on school news and activities, and provide subjects of interest to everyone. A thank you is in order for this hard-working group.

J. Lesinski and J. Byrne, Co-editors, B. Meinke and R. Jachim, Assistant Co-editors.

Spires Staff

Early in the school year, when students were just getting used to their new schedule, the Spires staff began their work behind closed doors, enveloped in an atmosphere of traditional secrecy. The editors and staff chose the "Key" as the theme, and with the much needed advice of Sr. Lucy Marie things began to take shape. The cover design was created, "modern" layouts were dreamed up, literary artists busied themselves, flashbulbs popped, and feverish activity took place in the Spire room. Long after the last student had left the building the Spire staff remained. In spite of the pressure and headaches, everyone who took part in producing the Spire of '55 felt satisfaction in a job well-dane.

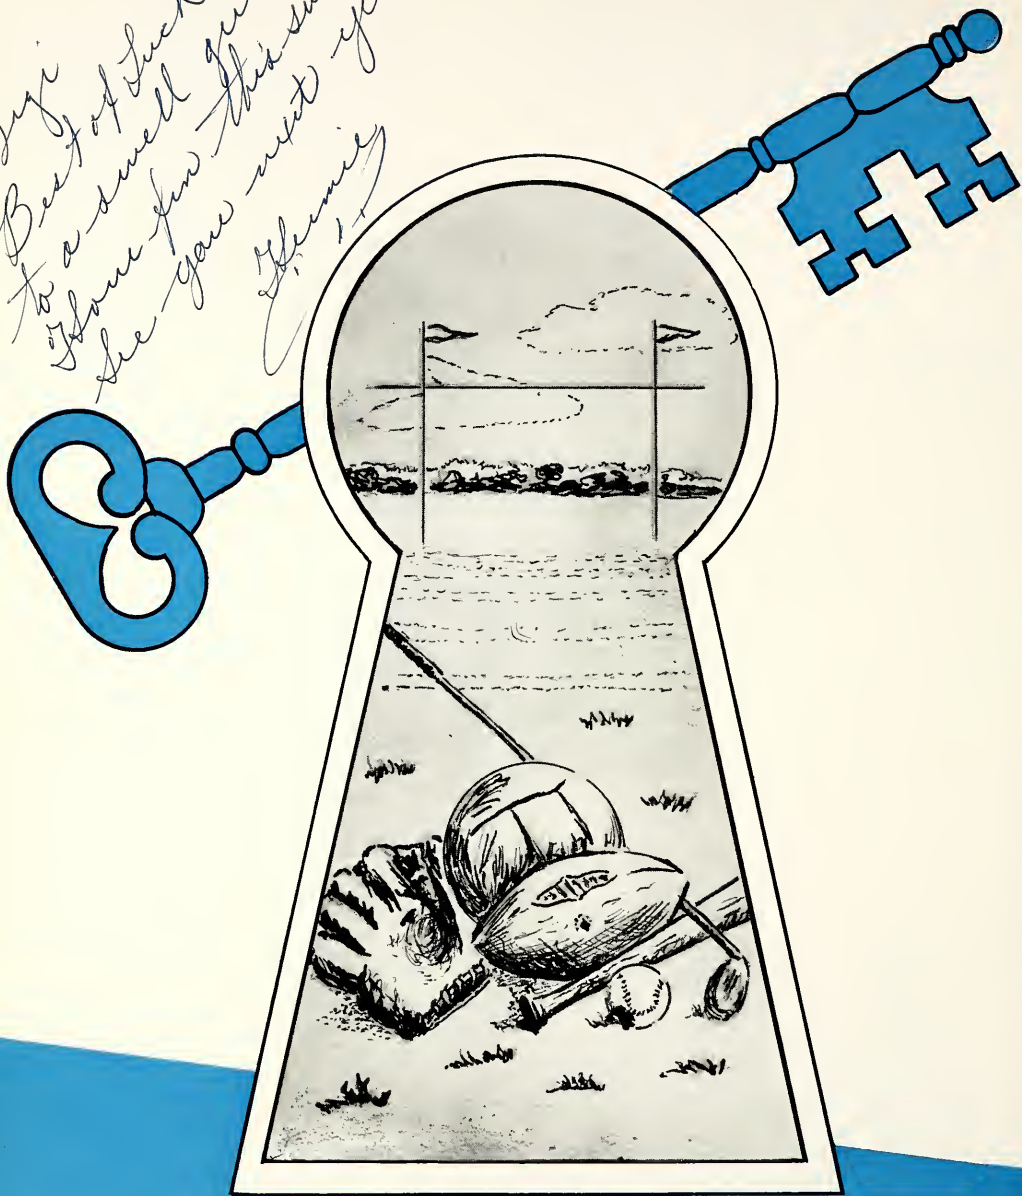

Spire Auxiliary Staff: seated, M. Alksnis, F. Pfeiffer, B. Reagan, M. Stonizek, M. Taylor, N. Herrman, standing, A. Orlowski, L. Piquemo, P. Zomiera, C. Van Hoek, P. Trussel, M. Lorenski, M. Mohn, M. # ATHLETICS

— A Key to Strong Minds and Bodies

In the extensive and well-organized sports program at Catholic Central, we build strong, healthy bodies; and along with exercise, we form fresh mental attitudes. A spirit of good sportsmanship is molded not only in the athletes themselves, but in all the sports fans as well. They learn to appreciate the ability of the athlete whether on the opponent's team or their own. Healthful, wholesome recreation is the key to strong minds and bodies.

C. C. - 20

Flint - 26

Despite the challenging Cougars' outstanding attempts to overthrow Flint Northern, Catholic bowed 20-26 in the '54 opener.

In the second period Morton blocked a punt on Flint's five yard line; Stein rammed through for two additional yards; Parente's delayed pass to Sowle in the end zone was good for a tally. The extra point was then kicked by Dobrykowski, bringing the score to 7-7 at the half. Late in the third period the Cougars surged ahead 14-13 on Huizenga's dash from the 3.

C. C.'s final touchdown came on another Huizenga smash from the 8, tying the game 20-20. However while quarterback Parente was attempting a forward pass on the 46 with two minutes left in the game, an unseen Viking jarred the ball from his hands and turned the play into the decisive touchdown of the game.

Close shave!

C. C. - 27

Creston - 0

As over eight thousand fans cheered them on, the C. C. Cougars successfully passed the first hurdle in defense of the city championship by defeating a scrappy Creston squad 27-0 at Houseman Field.

The first time the Cougars held the ball it spelled touchdown for C.C. After Sowle recovered a Creston fumble, Cook and Stein advanced; Stein plunged over from the five for the TD. Catholic's backs penetrated the Polar Bear line once again before the half time gun, Stein traveling the last five yards.

During the second half, Cook carried the ball over for their third tally. Midway in the third quarter Parente's touchdown pass to Larry Barcheski gave the Cougars an impressive 27-0 shutout over the Polar Bears.

C. C. - 41

Ottawa - 14

Catholic Central's superb defense and running attack claimed Ottawa as its second City League victim. The Hill men played valiantly and defiantly, but they were outclassed from the start.

The first touchdown came soon after the beginning of the game when Hanrahan snatched an Ottawa fumble. Cook then galloped from the three to score. In the second quarter, Stein tallied, climaxing a 65 yard drive. The third T.D. came on a pass from Parente to Cook; the fourth by Frank Huizenga after a 53 yard ramble. A pass from Schmitz to Barcheski and a 49 yard jaunt by Dave Feutz accounted for the last two touchdowns. Dobrygowski successfully converted five times during the game.

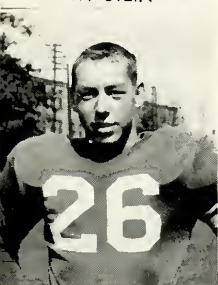

Tietema, Sieracki, and Tomajczyk played outstandingly on the Cougar front wall.

C. C. - 39

Holland - 7

The Cougars exploded to hand Holland a 39-7 defeat as Cook played the role of dynamite by romping for three touchdowns. The game was marked for Catholic from the first few minutes, as the Cougars took the kickoff and marched 57 yards in seven plays with Cook going over from the 15 to score. With three minutes left in the first quarter, Cook broke over tackle and went 53 yards for the second TD.

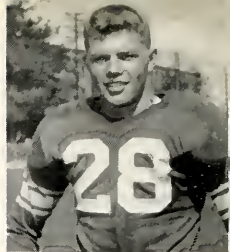

In the second quarter, while their defense temporarily stymied the visitors, Holland scored their lone touchdown aurally. After the half, the Dutchmen continued to apply pressure, but Catholic's line turned to stone, and the great Cat, taking over on its own 15, ended Holland's last threat from then on.

Catholic's brilliant play completely dominated the fourth quarter, scoring three touchdowns to make the final score 39-7.

C. C. - 13

Arthur Hill - 19

The Cougars lost to an inspired Saginaw team, 19-13. Catholic handed Arthur Hill their touchdown tickets with their own fumblyitis and an unsuccessful field goal attempt which the North City men parlayed into their winning touchdown.

Catholic came back twice. Huizenga ran 58 yards for the initial Cougar T.D., tying the game 6-6. His second plunge from the Lumberjack's 3 yard line scored our last tally.

The outstanding defensive linemen who held Saginaw from chalking up a larger score were Rubleski, Wilks, and Tietema.

C. C. - 6

Union - 20

The Cougars bowed for the first time in three years of city competition to Union in a rather one-sided affair.

Union outplayed C. C. all through the game. The Hawk's ground-gaining attack kept pounding away yardage, giving the West-Siders opportunities to score their three touchdowns.

The Cougars appeared strangely slow and seemed to lack the drive which generally characterizes the powerful Catholic team. Midway through the third period, Catholic started to rally with Huizenga, Cook, and Stein cracking the Hawk's line successfully for our only touchdown. Then Catholic's fumble set up Union's touchdown drives that punished the Cougars to the tune of 20-6 and gave the Red-Hawk's a bid for the city title.

C. C. - 21

South - 14

Catholic was assured second place in city league competition by overcoming a determined South squad 21-14. The Cougar's first drive came midway in the first period when Boylen recovered a South fumble. Starting from the C.C. 33 the Cougars marched 67 yards in twelve plays, Huizenga going over for the tally and the encore. Marger then took advantage of a Trojan fumble, which gave Catholic its second score. This time the honors went to Stein who toted the pigskin for 27 yards and the T. D. He followed up with the extra point. South then bounced back into the game with a last minute score before halftime.

Spirits were aroused when the Trojans tied the score late in the third canto. Stein, playing a superb game, accounted for the final touchdown and extra point giving Catholic its fourth City League triumph.

Irresistable farce vs. immovable object

C. C. - 12

Central - 0

Before a Homecoming crowd of forty-five hundred, Catholic Central smothered tricky Central with an impenetrable defense.

The Cougars were momentarily stunned by a flurry of deceptive plays following the kick-off, but the Ram's drive stalled when they fumbled on Catholic's 40.

C. C. dominated the first quarter, and on the initial play of the second period Huizenga chalked up the team's first score on a spurt around left end from the four.

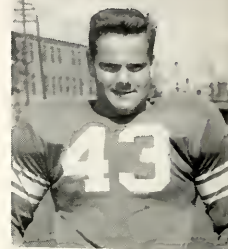

Central threatened continually during the rest of the game until the final minutes of play, when Cook, with a big assist from Dave Feutz, plunged through for the last 6 points. The Homecoming classic had ended successfully for 1954.

C. C. - 47      Muskegon C. C. - 19

The Cougar's football season came to a brilliant climax with a crushing defeat of Muskegon Catholic Central, 47-19. In a game that promises to become an annual classic of Michigan high-school football, Coach Sowle's efficiency experts methodically dismantled the valiant, but outclassed Crusaders.

Since this was their last game for old C. C., the senior Cougars made sure that it would be remembered. Tomajczyk, Wittkowski, Tietema, and Wilks unleashed a savage blocking and fierce tackling exhibition to help power 28 points across in the first 12 minutes. Quarterback Parente's deft accurate passes to Huizenga dismayed the Muskegon boys so much that the rack-up was 35-0 at the half.

The reserves took over later in the second half and proved that they would be a powerful threat next year by scoring a touchdown on their own.

The game ended with 47 points for us after Huizenga and Cook had tallied twice, and Parente and Hanna once.

Cougar Reserves

The Junior Cougars performed in genuine C. C. fashion by climaxing a hard-fought season with a tie for City Championship. Coach Dan Lennon was well-stocked with excellent football material when the season started. After Union defeated the Varsity, the best eleven of the Reserves were moved up to the first team and saw a lot of action, especially in the Muskegon C. C. game.

The Reserves gave proof of their terrific power by racking up a total of 195 points to their opponents 34, assuring Catholic Central's reign as a football power in Michigan for a long time to come.

Some of the outstanding reserve players were: backs, R. Wybranowski, J. Wysocki, T. Cunningham, T. Flickinger, and B. Brocato; linemen, T. Ryan, N. Smith, B. O'Brien, E. Rutowsky, E. Smith, and A. Marckini.

Freshmen

The Cougar Frosh team after losing their first game and tying their second roared back with six straight victories to finish the season in a tie for the city freshman title.

The Cougar Cubs were led by quarterback M. Elliott, and backs T. Walch, R. Ciucci, and linemen J. Barto, S. Zurek, G. Andre, J. Bowen, S. Wisinski, and M. McGillicuddy. The city co-champions had remarkable depth in both line and backfield.

Coach Jules Sommer did an outstanding job this year in preparing the future Varsity Champs of Grand Rapids.

The Cougar yearlings, in spite of a height handicap which retarded them, maintained a high team spirit and concluded the season with a record of 7 wins, 7 losses. The Reserve cagers suffered a mid-season loss of Ed Wagner and Hermie Miller, who were moved up to give the varsity a needed depth.

Ron Wybranowski and Paul Rinkevich led the Reserves during the season. The future looks bright for Catholic Central cagers because of the ball-handling and shooting abilities of the entire company.

Freshmen

The tallest Freshman basketball team in C.C.'s history piled up an impressive record of 9 wins and 3 losses. Nine of the twenty-one members were over six feet and the average height of the team was 5' 10". The Cougar cubs averaged 37.5 points per game while allowing their opponents only 26.5 points average. The team's losses were by narrow margins and its members will bear watching in future years.

CROSS COUNTRY AND TRACK

Cross Country

The Cougar Harriers, composed mostly of underclassmen, fought through an unsuccessful season with undaunted spirit. Luck was hard on the boys but they kept on trying. Our team was a building team this year and promises to be a top threat in the near future. Cross Country is one of the most grueling sports and the squad deserves credit for the hours spent in preparation for the long, rough runs.

Track

A tremendous turnout of boys haping for berths on the track squad greeted Coach Sawle this spring. The team this year is composed mainly of underclassmen with a few returning veterans in the shot put, pole vault, and hurdles, but the future of the team is uncertain because of the general lack of experience. The Cougars looked promising in their first meet when they defeated South. The cindermen showed strength in the relays and hurdles and are hopeful of retaining their City League dual crown.

Prospects of this year's tennis team are bright with the return of four lettermen, Ken Duchene, Peter Tarchinski, Bill Butts, and Bill Thrall. Thrall will be competing for his fourth year and is sure to be dangerous in the number one singles spot. As yet, our net men have not taken to the courts, but their past performances and the experienced tutelage of Coach Frank Geary are bound to show an excellent record for the 1955 season.

SWIMMING

Swimming, the most recent addition to Catholic's athletic curricula, may develop to be a Cougar strong point. This year our tankmen splashed to a 3-3 record. The leading mermen of the team were J. Donahue (41 points), D. Bek (33), R. Bek (30), L. Jacokes (30), P. Paskiewicz (22), and R. Nolan (22).

Front row:
J. Jacokes,
J. Hare,
J. Elmer,
J. Sowle.
Row 2:
T. Schmidt,
B. Croig,
J. Conrad,
D. Bek,
J. Donahue,
J. Kurzynowski,
R. Bek.
Row 3:
B. Vanderkellen,
J. Poposki,
B. Nolan,
E. Kolando,
P. Paskiewicz,
Coach R. Withey.

GOLF

Teeing off, Coach J. Sommer, J. O'Donovan, H. Miller, R. Jachim, A. Junewick.

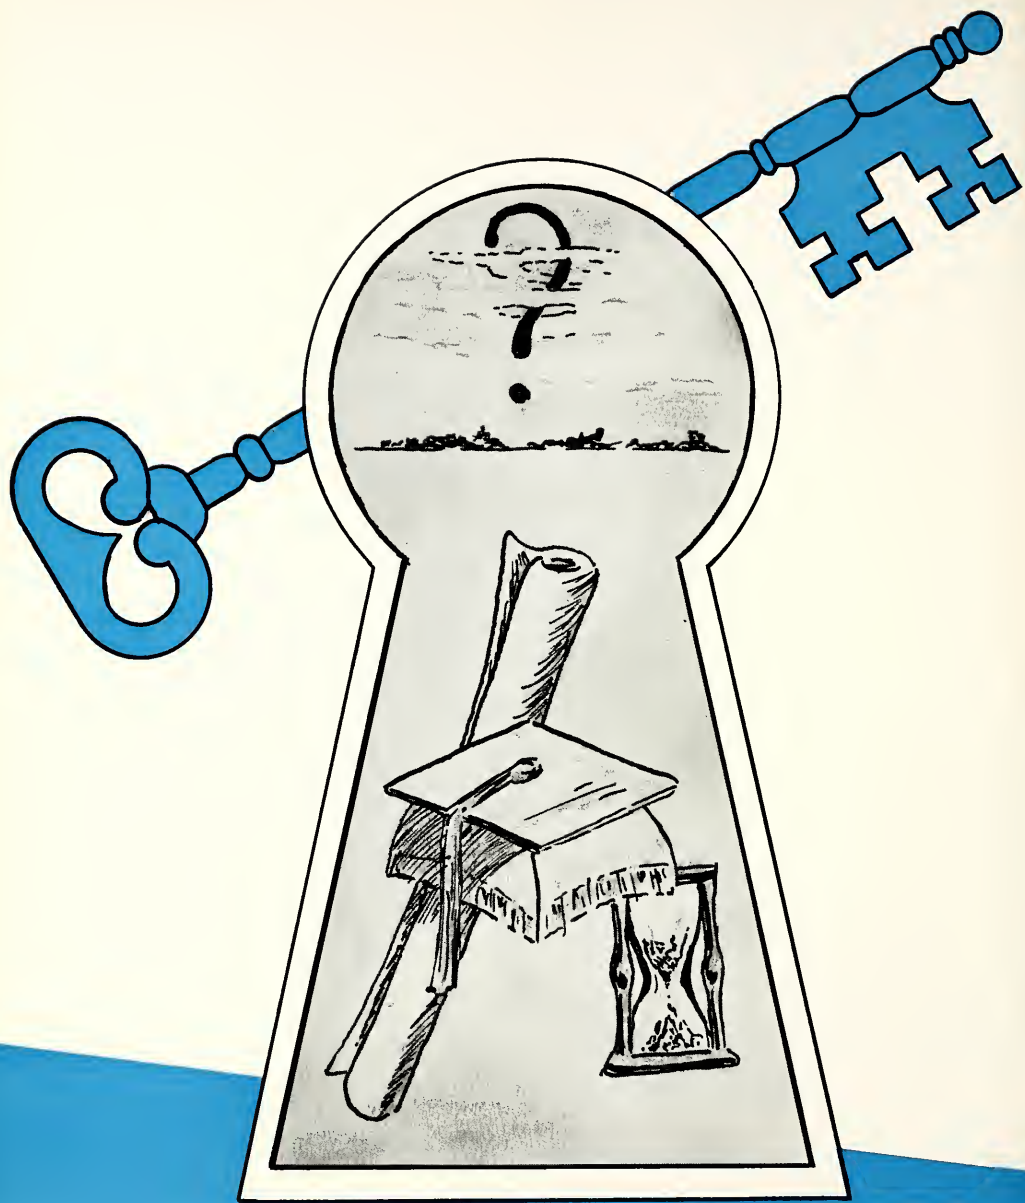

On the fairway, R. Jachim, J. O'Donovan, A. Junewick, H. Miller.

Careful putting, J. Butterwarth, A. Dimavicius, T. McCormick, D. Bruckman.

Every spring finds Catholic's golf addicts out on the fairways and greens. The Cougars have use of all the facilities of the Grand Rapids golf courses. With Miller, O'Donovan, Junewick, and Jachim pacing this year's squad, Mr. Sommer has high hopes for a good season. In past years they have been one of the top teams in the city, and this year, we hope, will be no exception.

SENIORS

— Forward to a Christian Life

For some, our years in high school have been our last formal education; for others, they have been a stepping-stone to college; for all, they have been years of fun, sadness, friendship, and toil — years full of memories. If we have made use of the opportunities within our reach at Catholic Central we have grown in grace, wisdom, and social poise, and we possess our keys to a successful Christian life. Now we must use them to unlock the door to our special place in God's plan. If we fit our key in the right door it will open to us a rich, happy, Christian life, and will eventually help us to unlock the gate of heaven.

Seniors, the key is ours! Forward to a Christian life!

Senior Class Officers

ROSEMARY COLE, Vice-President

ROSEMARY KOWALCZYK, Secretary

WILLIAM THRALL, President

The Class of 1955 chose as their project this year the building of a grotto dedicated to Our Lady of Schools. It is located in the court, constructed of limestone and tile, and much of it is the labor of the students themselves. At left is a picture of the grotto, unfinished when "Spires" went to press.

LETTERS TO THE EDITORS

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

It is my personal conviction that your brilliant composition concerning the Detention Hall (Feb. 30, 1945) is without a doubt, the finest and most straight-forward opinion on the subject that I have ever read. Full of truth and indiscriminate excerpts, it forms the pattern for future educational essays.

Elaine Slowinski

Your story was good. I liked it. It was nice. I also think it was well.

Bert Walsh

Your article THE DETENTION HALL BENEFITS MANKIND was absurd. It was prejudice, bias, unequivocal, unfair and no good. The insinuation made in your sentence: "certain carefree individuals" was utterly, completely unverified! Your article was the essence of malefaction!

Tony Pallozollo

A more appropriate story you'll never find. Great! Magnificent! Psychological! Words cannot express its stupendous and stimulating effect on all its readers. With editorials like this I can see why your book sells over 2,000,000,000 more copies than any other.

Tom Glowacki

Since when is PAST running a political smear campaign?

David Nutt

In the picture accompanying your article on the detention hall you identified the boy sitting in the fourth row from the window, 19th seat from the fire escape, wearing a chartreuse babooska, plaid shawl, button-down army blanket, candy-striped ski-pants, and two-tone perforated combat boots, as Irma Steffes. That person is not in the fourth row from the window; he is in the fourth row from the door. He was not in the 19th seat from the fire escape, but from the blackboard; that is not a chartreuse babooska, but a cleverly disguised bagil. In was not Irma Steffes, it was Jim Fiedorowicz.

Rowie Kennedy

There never has been an article in the PAST concerning, relating to, regarding, or slightly connected to detention halls. The only picture in that issue was of a whale hunt, but we enjoy your letters, regardless.—ED.

MYSTERY GIRL

In your picture of Catholic Central's Sno-Shuffle (Jan. 29, 1951), who was the girl dancing with Tom Kowalski? Judging from the stature, I would guess her to be Rosie Cole, Josie La Fata, Judy Spendow, Betty Breuer, or Bonnie Miller. Could you identify her?

Disappointed Lover

It wasn't the Sno-Shuffle, it was the the boy's gymn class; they weren't dancing, they were "indian rassing". As to the mystery dancer, it was Don Witt-kowski.—ED.

KNUCKLE DOWN

I agree wholeheartedly with your article: "Marbles Is A Man's Game, Don't Take It For Granite" (Sept. 6, 1907), but there is one thing troubling me. In our city tournament I was disqualified for "nudging my wimpy". I do not understand what this means. Please explain.

Chuck Tomajczyk

You're right. The boy should stay on the outside when walking down the hallway with a girl.—ED.

DISTURBED LANDSCAPE

In your picture included in the article THE STAR-NOSED MOLES ARE ON THE MOVE (March 22), was that shredded grass and flying sod (see arrow) caused by a mole burrowing his hole behind the hill?

Ray Novak

No. its only "Stick" Jachim trying to tee off.—ED.

When interviewing these people, oddly enough they had nothing to say about the movie but came up with some of their typical comments:

Sister Edwin: "I'll give you one hour!"

Jeannie Dennis: "Hiya guys."

Bert Walsh: "CQ, CQ—40 meter—
W8JEF calling."

Gerry Roberts: "Look, toots, lemme

John Neuhaus: "Hold it, wait a minute, time out, time out!"

Evalds Trizna: "Just call me Wally."

John Wauchope: "I! #%& @ * ($ 'I'."

Frank Huizenga: "Chomph, chomph, smack, chew, Git your hands off my lunch."

Bill Thrall: "May I have your attention please! Pass the trays up to the front."

Freddy Pfeiffer: (Blush) "Oh, you kids."

Barb Uzarski: "Hi you."

EXPOSE!

C. C. STUDENT SEES C. C.

(As told to Redwood E. Morrow)

SEPTEMBER

7. SCHOOL OPENS. I trudged down Sheldon and Maple unaware of the consequences to come.
18. FIRST FOOTBALL GAME. This was the first event that led to my mental collapse.

OCTOBER

11. SENIOR ELECTIONS. That day I learned to subsist on one hour's sleep in the study hall.
28. MOCK STATE ELECTION. Civics classes spread propaganda.
30. FOP HOP. I experienced the passion of jealousy when I learned that Queen Sweich was escorted by Mudrack.

NOVEMBER

1. ALL SAINTS' DAY. Escape from routine.
5. HOMECOMING. I was on the road to becoming a social lion.
6. CATHOLIC PRESS CONFERENCE. Lectures in Kalamazoo failed to improve my English.
20. SENIOR MIXER. I felt mixed up enough without attending this event.
24. STUDENT COUNCIL DANCE. Armbands! Armbands! The law had me surrounded.
26. FIRST BASKETBALL GAME. The steady beat of McCormick's dribbling drove me mad, MAD, with frenzy.

DECEMBER

8. MARIAN CLUB PILGRIMAGE. An outside force entered my life—Sr. M. Edwin.
19. SENIOR CHRISTMAS PARTY. Holiday cheer warmed my cold heart.
23. VACATION BEGINS. I was free, unchained, released—to see Santa Claus.
29. ALUMNI DANCE. A cruise past Civic filled me with melancholy when I saw our beloved alumni rushing to the dance.

JANUARY

3. SCHOOL REOPENS. Again I return to the grindstone!
6. CARITOT CHRISTMAS PARTY. Pitter-patter of tiny feet. My paternal emotions emerged.
- 20-21. EXAMS. Throbbing headaches. The capacity of my brain was reached.
- 24-28. RETREAT. Father McQuillan brought me closer to my Creator.
29. BLUE AND WHITE CAPERS. Why did I spend money for Blue and White? I could have read the ones on the wall for free.

FEBRUARY

12. SNOSHUFFLE. Love came my way. I escorted the girl of my dreams to the dance.
18. GALA NITE, heartbreak—the girl of my dreams jilted me because I failed to win her a doll.
23. ASH WEDNESDAY. Penance in reparation for my sinful ways.

MARCH

17. SAINT PATRICK'S DAY. That day I was ashamed. I returned home minus my orange shirt.
18. SAINT JOSEPH'S EVE. Free day! Blessed relief.
- 29-30. CROWN OF THORNS. I learned appreciation for home talent.
31. VOCATIONAL DAY. Terror! Would I get caught for skipping that "fine arts" lecture?

APRIL

10. EASTER. The arrival brought gaiety.
- 11-12. SPRING VACATION. Defeat on the golf course. I accepted my fate as a poor loser.
16. SPRING SWING. I missed a wonderful dance. The golf duel was over a girl.

- MAY
1. MARIAN TEA. Revolution—The Viennese Waltz returns to C.C.
14. J-HOP. Financial ruin.
21. MAM'SELLE. Decisions, decisions, always decisions. Whose bid shall I accept?

JUNE

1. CLASS NITE. SUCCESS. Weeks of practice paid off.
12. GRADUATION. The year had concluded. I was cast out into the cruel world.

When you and I were young, Rosie.

Dainty miss.

Cafeteria gourmets.

Ladies' man.

"What'll you have?"

Just what he always wanted, a teddy bear.

"Never mind,
it's warm."

Pffftt.

Anything for the glory of old CC.

"Pfsheesh, what a grauch!"

Sanitation engineer.

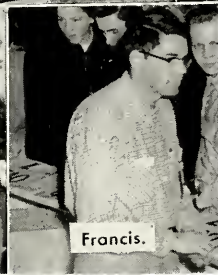

Championship form.

Dead to the world.

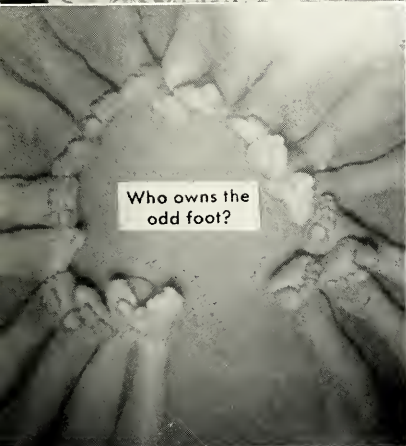

The girls.

Francis.

"I'm in the jailhouse now!"

Who owns the odd foot?

Tietema,
All-city yo-yo.

Damsel in distress.

Hoods.

Seniors visit the mayor.

The Senior Grotto Committee is shown with the completed project.

FINIS

This book is the culmination of hundreds of ideas and pictures, pages of writing, time, toil, and the co-operation of many people. We would like to express our sincere gratitude to each and every person whose efforts went into making the book what it is. We are especially indebted to our adviser, Sr. Lucy Marie O.P., to Mr. Van Dyke of the Dean-Hicks Company, and to Mr. Werkema of Versluis Studios for their cheerful patience. Without their knowledge, assistance, and guidance the 55 Spires would never have materialized.

This book was fashioned with you in mind. If it pleases you our efforts are rewarded.

Jerry and Joan

Dear Gigi

First of all I want to apologize for all the troubles I have caused between us and just hope that things will work out between us as we hope. Guess we had all our troubles settled and let's not have any more.

Have a lot of fun this summer and I hope that sometimes I'll be there with you to enjoy it with others also. Let's hope we have classes and other social <sup>activities</sup> together in our High Top Junior year.

Best of luck.

Love always,
Lidija Vaiturs

Dear Gigi,

Best of luck always to sweet, cute kid. It's been nice knowing you. Hope to see you next year.

Barb Jackimowicz
